

EXPERT WITNESS NEEDED?

Do you have a problem with the Solicitors Accounts Rules? Do you need some guidance on dealing with recurring failure to comply? Have you had a breakdown of supervisory systems? Perhaps you need your position to be examined and explained in simple terms. As well as presenting proposals for improved performance in future.

If there has been a partnership dispute involving client funds and you need an independent opinion on the events and suggestions as to the way forward, you may want to think of Leslie Cumming Consultancy Services Ltd as a possible solution.

We have the experience in giving expert testimony for courts at all levels, as well as panels and committees that will allow us to support your decision process and improve your chances of getting the result you are after.

See what your solicitor thinks of the idea of an independent review. If it fits the bill, get in touch by phone. Tel numbers 0131 346 4692 or 0785 290 4646. Fax or text is also available on these numbers. Or email me at leslie@lesliecumming.co.uk if that's easier.
